Palisades Climb Adventure Expands with the addition of the Sky Tykes Ropes Course, designed just for kids

West Nyack, NY- Visitors to the Palisades Center Mall have been enthralled, intrigued, and entertained by the revolutionary experience offered by the Palisades Climb Adventure ropes course, since its opening in late 2012. For 13 months, it has delighted and entertained adults and children alike with its brand of physically active entertainment. Now, the Palisades Climb Adventure is thrilled to announce Sky Tykes, a brand new experience, designed for younger children.

This innovative activity represents an opportunity for children, two to seven years-old, and 48 inches tall and under to experience the kind of fun their older siblings have come to know so well. The open and low-level design allows for easy parental guidance at any level of the course. Adults can share in the fun by walking alongside their child, or by stepping back and appreciating the experience in comfort, knowing that each participant is securely harnessed into the course.

"We are so excited to offer an adventure for the little kids," Kevin Clark, General Manager of Palisades Climb Adventure said. "Younger kids no longer have to stand by and watch their older siblings enjoy the big course. Sky Tykes allows them an opportunity to take part in the fun of a ropes course, specifically designed for them."

The Sky Tykes ropes course stands three feet tall, and features 10 unique challenge elements for children to climb, conquer and explore.

Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center stated, "We are extremely excited to add another element of play to our entertainment mix at Palisades Center. We are sure that the children will love this new addition."

Sky Tykes is located on level four of the Palisades Center mall, next to the Palisades Climb Adventure course.

"We are thrilled to present Sky Tykes at a special price of $8.99, plus tax, per child," Clark said.

In addition to this expansion, Palisades Climb Adventure is now offering annual passes for guests to experience unlimited visits for one full year on the 85 foot tall signature course. The pass is only $74.99 plus tax without any blackout dates.
